A Circuit Mission committee meeting is to be held on Tuesday 6th November at 10.30 at the Dingley Hall, Central to discuss the way forward regarding the missions. Could the mission representatives from our chapels come along to talk over the position. Many thanks.

WW1 Exhibition in Central Church

On Friday 9th November the WW1 Exhibition will open at 7pm with a talk by Roger Pyke about the detailed and extensive research that has led up to the Exhibition. This will be followed by a Question and Answer session. Several members of Central Church are also contributing to the Exhibition.

On Saturday 10th November the Exhibition will be open from 10am to 4pm with some refreshments in the church.

On Sunday 11th November the Exhibition will open at 11am with the 2 minute silence and will remain open until 4pm. There will also be a soup lunch available.

Cornwall Independent Poverty Forum meeting on 6th November at 2pm in St Mary's Hall. The Poverty Forum holds meetings across Cornwall each year, providing an opportunity for each area to raise awareness of its particular problems and needs. It also enables the sharing of ideas that have worked to alleviate poverty related issues. If local poverty is a concern to you, or if you are able to contribute to the conversation, then please come along to this open meeting.

Pearl of Africa Children's Choir tour 2019 - Need for a Cornwall/Plymouth regional organiser. Yes, the choir is planning to visit the UK next year from September to December! We need to recruit a volunteer couple to recruit and liaise with schools and churches in Cornwall, organise drivers and other volunteers etc., to enable the choir to visit us in late 2019. You would also liaise with the other regions for next year's vital awareness and fundraising tour. Further details from Chris and Rosemary Paxman tel 77590.

Christmas Child boxes. At last I have the final date for the return of Christmas Child Boxes. SUNDAY 18th. NOV. Yes you still have time to send one! But if you feel you can't fill a box we are happy to collect suitable items and we will complete it for you. Please leave any boxes and items in the Church foyer. Very many thanks for all the boxes and donations so far.

Wenda Gilbert's family offered some of Wenda's Christian books to the Local Preachers in the circuit and a considerable number of those books have found new homes with Local Preachers. There are still some of Wenda's books available in a box on one of the chairs in front of the church library - if you would like to take any of them to read and keep we are sure that Wenda would be pleased for you to do so.
